

WE'VE GOT YOUR BACK!

A list of questions to ask when getting Pet Insurance quotes:

What is the annual benefit limit?

What % of the vet bill will they cover?

Will they pay the vet directly?

Do they have sub-limits for any conditions?

Do they have any lifetime benefit limits for any conditions?

Do they cover chronic conditions for the life of the pet?

Do they cover snake bites?

Do they cover foreign body ingestion?

Do they have any waiting periods?

Do they cover illness after the age of 8?

Do they cover tick paralysis?

Do they cover complimentary/alternative treatments (eg, chiropractic, hydrotherapy, acupuncture, behavioural therapy)?

Do they cover oral and gum disease and extractions?

Do they have any breed specific, hereditary or congenital exclusions?

Do they offer Third Party Liability?

www.ivdd.org.au

Disclaimer

This information is presented for educational purposes and as a resource for the Australian Dachshund Community. Dachshund IVDD Support Australia Inc (DISA) and its representatives are not veterinarians or health care professional and nothing herein should be interpreted as medical advice. All owners should contact their pet care professionals for advice.

DISA and its representatives are not responsible for the substance and content contained herein and do not advocate any particular product, item, recommendation or position contained herein.

Updated 04/11/2016